

STATE of WISCONSIN

OFFICE of the GOVERNOR

Proclamation

WHEREAS; strong science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) education are vital to the intellectual and economic future of the state of Wisconsin; and

WHEREAS; Wisconsin's "Project Lead the Way" (PLTW) schools and business partners have made strong efforts in working to close the disparity between the number of STEM-field college graduates and the number of skilled workers needed in STEM industries; and

WHEREAS; "Project Lead the Way Week" in Wisconsin is a valued statewide collaborative project, with an aim to involve as many STEM-centered organizations, businesses, and education institutions in cities and municipalities across the state; and

WHEREAS; many of the schools and businesses in Wisconsin that are trying to address the need of the Wisconsin workforce in kindergarten through college education are working to reform the educational system and are committed to high expectations for all students through inspiring intellectual curiosity and building a state of collaborative problem solvers, critical thinkers, innovators, and entrepreneurs; and

WHEREAS; the goal of celebrating PLTW week in Wisconsin is to inspire parents, principals, teachers, superintendents, and businesses in Wisconsin to focus on PLTW programming and STEM in our schools; and

WHEREAS; students from across the state have set up PLTW capstone projects and engineering designs at the State Capitol on Wednesday, November 4, 2015, to celebrate all of these efforts;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Scott Walker, Governor of the state of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim November 2 – 6, 2015, as

PROJECT LEAD THE WAY WEEK

throughout the state of Wisconsin, and I commend this observance to all of our citizens.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the state of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 12th day of October 2015.

SCOTT WALKER
